CALL FOR MORE BOND WORKERS

War Savings Stamp Canvassers Needed at Once—More Ladies Wanted by Mrs Bantz, Chairman of the Canvassing Committee — Auburn Park Postoffice District Large—Population of 36,000 to Be Reached

The work of visiting every resident of Auburn Park and interviewing them regarding their purchases of War Savings Stamps is being steadily pushed by the committee in charge, headed by Mrs A E Bantz, the chairman. This committee is composed entirely of Auburn Park women and they are all volunteers. Not one of them receives a cent for their labor, a labor that is not in all cases pleasant.

The district to be covered is a large one. It is bounded upon the south by 95th St; upon the north by 75th St; upon the west by Western Ave, and upon the east by State St, a total area of seven and a half square miles The population approximates $36,000.

The actual work represented by the present canvass, undertaken by the ladies at the request of the Government, consists in visiting every resident of the district and securing data upon a specially provided Government blank, showing what each person living in this territory is doing in the way of purchasing War Stamps Upon the blank also is recorded the names of those who do not purchase stamps and their reasons for not doing so

Mrs Bantz reports that while quite a number of our ladies have volunteered their services for certain days or parts of days, the ranks are far from being full She has asked this paper to issue a call for more workers All Auburn Park women reading these words are therefore asked to consider themselves (unless otherwise engaged in patriotic work) as called "to the colors" for the vigorous prosecution of this branch of the Government service Reading this notice is virtually a notification that the reader is "drafted" One thing is absolutely certain, and that is that the canvass must be made It is equally certain that the ladies of Auburn Park must make it Now, there is not a woman here who will openly admit that she is willing to have another woman do for her what is so plainly her own bounden duty to do herself The conclusion is unavoidable, the call is loud, take up your phone and ask for Stewart 7791 (Mrs Bantz's number) and volunteer

Sell War Stamps NOW and help END THE WAR A strong pull and a long pull is all that is needed Now up and at it!

Mr Herriott, superintendent of the local postoffice, 838 W 79th St (near Halsted St) has set aside a portion of the station for the use of the canvassers He has provided a desk and chairs for the special use of the ladies in the prosecution of this important national movement, "and every volunteer," he advises us, "is welcome to come to the postoffice and make use of these helps"

Mrs. Bantz has this week appointed the following ladies as additional assistants Mesdames Bryden, 8459 Green St, Johnson, 8632 Aberdeen St, Will Trefger, 8451 Sangamon St, Roth, 8645 Morgan St, E W Thomas, 8615 Lowe Ave These ladies are requested to call upon her at her home, 7629 Emerald Ave, and receive their credentials as authorized agents of the United States Treasury Department

Highland Proclamation.

The following is a proclamation said to have been once issued at Kenmore. "A aue time, ho yes! an' a twa time ho yes! and a tree time, ho yes! To a' them wha ha' gotten the spoke (English), no persons, at no time after nor prefore, will pu' peats nor howk heather on my Lord Preatalappin's moss, or my lordship to pe surely will prought them perfore her to be pebeatet and syne hangt, and gin she'll come back till pe waur done till her nor a' tat."

You Are an Heir.

We like to preach the doctrine of contentment. Now, there is no man so content as the man who is heir to a great estate, and you are heir to the greatest estate that ever was, namely, the whole earth. Once the earth was owned in common by all the people. Well, are you not an heir of the original owners? It is nothing at all to own just a little corner of the world and no more All of it is yours if you have eyes to see, ears to hear and the heart to feel—Los Angeles Times.

The King Got His.

Solomon, a London musician, had as pupil King George II One day, when the king had not distinguished himself by great practice or skill in playing, the teacher gave him the following classification of fiddlers "Fiddlers, your majesty may be divided into three classes. To the first belong those who cannot play at all; to the second those who play badly, and to the third those who play well. You, sire, have already reached the second class."

Weights Affected by Gravity.

Anything weighed in the polar regions weighs more than if weighed on the equator, if weighed by a spring balance, since the strength of the spring is not affected by gravity; but if weighed by a scale beam balance and weights the weight is the same as in any part of the world, since the weights are affected by gravity to the same degree as the article which is weighed For this reason goods weighed in custom houses from foreign parts are always weighed by beam scales

White Buzzards.

A page from Captain Dampier's "First Voyage to the Bay of Campeachy" published in 1729, tells of white buzzards A native of any of the southern states will rough for the fact that a white buzzard in those parts would be regarded as something of an absurdity, but says the veracious old sea captain. "Some of the carrion crows are all over white but their feathers look as if they were sullied . . . 'Tis seldom that we see a great number of black ones but that we see one white one among them"

Know What You Want.

"The hardest customers I have," a salesman in a city store declared recently, "are the people who are waiting for someone to tell them what they want." This class of people is larger than we might expect, and not only do they make trouble for others but they are restless and discontented. Do not wait for someone to tell you what you want. Find out for yourself. The first step toward getting what you want is to know what it is.

Benefit Performance a Big Success

Much comfort and gladness is assured to the boys who have left for military or naval service from District 76 by the splendid returns received from the benefit performance given at the Cosmopolitan Theatre last Wednesday

The officers of Auxiliary to Local Board 76 wish to thank those who so generously cooperated with them in the purchase of tickets and especially thank the entertainers and ticket sellers who worked so earnestly towards making the show a success

Mr Tim Weldon distinguished himself as a worker of ability and expended no small amount of effort on the arrangements for the performance and to him is due much credit for the splendid financial gains made which will all go to make happy our boys in the service

We want to again ask every man and woman in this district to join our Auxiliary, so that all the boys who answer their country's call may be given a cheerful sendoff We hope with your cooperation to make this Auxiliary one of the best

Application for membership can be filed at office of Chairman H J Schuberth 809 W 79th St, or at T J Weldon's store at 7823 S Halsted St

My Mother

And here's a line to my mother,
The best of all the lot,
With a simple little message,
Just a sweet forget me not
It's sent to her from someone,
Sealed with a kiss of love
To wish her joy and comfort,
And blessings from above

May it find her well and happy
As the morn I went away
May it make her burden lighter,
As she toils from day to day
May it chase away the wrinkles
From her apt to worry brow,
And keep her smiles a smiling,
Till we've finished up this row

There's a brighter day a coming
For us, and those back home,
There are ships of Joy and Happiness
To sail us o'er the foam,
The sights will be most wonderful,
As loved ones greet each other,
But none will be so tender
As when Owen meets his Mother

The above was composed by Corporal Owen A Murphy of 33rd Division Headquarters Troop, France, and sent to his mother, Mrs Owen Murphy of 1257 W 79th St

Plantfood in Soil.

A chemical analysis cannot show the amount of available plantfood in a soil. A chemist could, without difficulty, make an artificial soil containing every element of plantfood in abundance, and yet be perfectly sterile. Peat, for example, is usually very rich in nitrogen, but it is locked up or unavailable. To pulverize it and mix it with lime is to change it into a highly nutritious soil.

That Romantic Irishman, in

"JUST FOR TONIGHT"

Tom Moore's first starring vehicle is this delightful story of a man who is so full of the adventure-loving spirit, that he gets into all sorts of dramatic situations as a result of his desire to be loved. Theodore Whitney, Jr., was a most determined young man, and when the girl for whom he had risked all had her identity from him for some mysterious reason, Theodore made up his mind to find out what it was. Also there was the mysterious theft of the Blackburn jewels. And then Theodore's father was robbed of a valuable mining stock certificate. Altogether it was a nice fat job that Theodore had picked out for himself. But then that was what he liked.

"See, Lassiter! The riders! They're after us. They'll get us now but for the stone. Roll the stone, Lassiter."

"I can't, Jane! I'm thinking of you. It will shut us in behind here, in the valley."

"But we can live here—you and I. I love you, Lassiter!"

Then Lassiter placed both hands on the rock and leaned his shoulder there and braced his powerful body.

Groaning, grating, grinding, the balancing rock began to lean. It had waited for ages to fall, and now was slow in starting. Then, suddenly instinct with life, it leaped hurtingly down to alight on the steep incline to bound more swiftly into the air, to gather momentum, to plunge into the lofty, leaning crag below.

The crag thundered into atoms. Dust shrouded the sunset red of shaking rims; dust shrouded the pursuers as they fell on their knees with uplifted arms. Shafts and monuments and sections of wall fell majestically.

From the depths there rose a long-drawn rumbling roar. The outlet of Deception Pass closed forever.

See This Wednesday, Sept. 25th

The Masked Rider huddled over his pommel, slowly swaying to one side, and then, with a faint, strange cry, slipped out of the saddle.

Venters' curiosity drew him to the fallen rustler's side. Strange, there were no gun-sheaths on the saddle of the drooping horse standing over the fallen rider!

"A rustler who didn't pack guns!" exclaimed Venters. "And he's got no belt on!"

A low gasping intake of breath, a twitching of the body told Venters the man still lived. He stooped and removed the mask and sombrero. A youthful face was disclosed, framed in chestnut curls.

"What is this—Oldring's feared Masked Rider only a boy?"

With hands that shook, Venters untied the black scarf and ripped open the blood-wet waist. First he saw a dark-red wound from which blood trickled against a whiteness of skin. Then—the graceful, beautiful swell of a woman's breast!

"A girl—I've killed a girl!" he cried in agony, just as her eyes opened and transfixed him—eyes of fathomless blue.

Psst! It's a secret, but maybe we'll let you in on it if you promise not to breathe it to a soul. Bod Rideway was one of those lovable harem-scarem scamps who was up to his neck in hot w[illegible] every time he turned. He went out of a Yale lot faster than he entered it, and when he left he carried the best wishes of the faculty for a safe arrival in the Inferno. Now! Here's the point. He had to finish that course at Yale to get the girl and the $20,000,000 that went with her. That's where he had a job done "on the quiet." What job? Ah! Now you're asking too much. BUY BONDS AND HELP BRING BOYS BACK

As you walk along the streets of Auburn Park any evening you probably notice the absence of many faces which a year ago were quite familiar. Many of them—bright, ambitious, smiling young chaps—have quite the pursuits of civil life to don the armor of the soldier to help fight the battle for liberty and humanity. A number of them have already crossed the Atlantic and some of them are, no doubt, at this very moment in the front-line trenches or helping drive the Teuton forces back. Their smiles, we hope, have not disappeared but grim determination has steeled their hearts to do their bit to wipe the last vestige of "kultur" and Prussian militarism from the face of the earth.

You and I want to bring these boys—every one of them—safely back home. We want them back again as a part of our daily life, even if we cannot boast of a service flag in the window, denoting a vacant chair at the table.

But before we can expect to see them again we must see that they are properly fed.

Make your contribution—no, not a contribution, just a loan—at least 5,000 cartridges. Then buy another $100 worth of bonds to make it 6,000 more.

"THE SOURCE"

A story of life in the lumber country of the Green Mountains is this one with Wallace Reid as the manly young hero. As a derelict who has sunk from one strata of society to another until we find him down in the very dregs, the star has excellent opportunity for a display of emotional acting of the highest sort, and he makes good with a vengeance, too. The picture is from the story of the same name which appeared in the Saturday Evening Post.

Musical Expression in Children.
A writer says: "The greater part of children's time is spent in elaborate impersonation and make-believe, and the entire basis of their education is acquired through this directly assimilative faculty." This applies most forcibly to music and gives to those who have the care of children almost unlimited opportunity for developing musical expression.

Sheep Best Farm Fertilizers.
Sheep produce the most valuable of all farm fertilizers. Their sharp hoofs work this well into the soil. This quality has earned for sheep the title of "Golden Hoof." In England land which during Queen Elizabeth's reign produced only six bushels of wheat per acre has been made to yield 80 bushels at present, simply by pasturing the land to sheep.

X-Ray Reflectors.
Mica has been found an excellent material for concentrating mirrors for X-rays. Glass will not do, because, smooth as it is, it is too rough for the extremely minute X-rays, which are much smaller than light waves. Glass diffuses the X-rays, much as a rough surface diffuses light waves, but it was found that the surface of mineral crystals were of the requisite smoothness for reflecting X-rays, and of them mica is the most adaptable, being readily split into sheets.

Origin of "Yankee."
It is said the term "Yankee" originated with the Indians when they were in alliance with the French colonists against the English. They were unable to pronounce the French words "Les Anglais" and pronounced the words "Yangee" which gradually took the form of "Yankee." When the English abandoned the country the Indians made no distinction between the former colonists and the English themselves, and the term clung to the Americans.

Derivation of "Major."
Major, like mayor, is from the Latin word major, greater, the comparative of magnus, great. The French for the same adjective is majeur, the Italian maggiore; mayor, by the way, is the Spanish form. A major is "greater" than a captain, but less than a lieutenant colonel. He is the lowest field officer.

A Similarity.
Some great scientist said that an oyster is as complicated as a watch. We know that both run down easily.

What Hurts.
Nothing hurts a self-made martyr like being ignored.—Idaho Daily Statesman.

The Cinque Ports.
"The cinque ports" of England are the "five ports," Dover, Sandwich, Hythe, Romney and Hastings. In Saxon and succeeding times they were bound to furnish ships for the purpose of repelling invasion, and in return were granted special privileges. Rye and Winchelsea were afterward added to them. To be appointed warden of the cinque ports is still considered a very high honor.

Deep Sea Creatures.
An interesting little creature of the deep is the lenceled. It ranks about halfway between a fish and an invertebrate. Among its many peculiarities is the absence of a distinct head. The mouth is in the middle of the body, and is surrounded by tentacles. At great depths shrimps have been found that have luminous bodies. When put into the aquarium, they lose their light-giving properties. Scientists believe the Creator made these creatures luminous to give them light in the dark depths of the sea.

Mischievous Magpie.
Birds of the magpie kind are like monkeys, full of mischief, play, and mimicry. There is a story of a tame magpie that was seen busily employed in a garden gathering pebbles, and with so much solemnity and a studied air dropping them in a hole made to receive a post. After dropping each stone it cried "Currack!" triumphantly, and set off for another. On examining the spot a toad was found in the hole, which the magpie was stoning for his amusement.

That's How it's Done.
A black mammy's recipes for her cakes: "Why, sure, honey, I'll tell you jess how to do it. You takes as much meal as you wants, mix in some flour an' three or four aigs, put in milk 'nough to make it thick as it oughter be; don't forgit a pinch or two o' salt and a good-sized lump o' butter; drop in a little sugar, too; den fill de little pans an' put 'em in de oven . . . till dey's done, honey."

The Pipe of Peace.
What is the magic of a corncob pipe? No matter how peevish or irritable my husband may be, when he is smoking his Missouri meerschaum he will do anything I ask. Couldn't something about corncob pipes be put in the marriage ceremony?—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Would You Believe It?
A scientist in Europe has figured that a particle of water evaporated from the ocean is condensed and returns again in ten days, but that it remains there 3,400 years before being evaporated again.

Hadn't Quite Understood.
Much amusement was created in a Melbourne (Australia) criminal court recently when a slightly deaf juror was being sworn. The judge repeated to him the words, "I swear by Almighty God so to do." Whereon the juryman declared, "I swear by Almighty God I'm sorry for you!"

Naturalization Papers.
Naturalization papers are issued by any federal court or state court of record. A fee of $1 is charged at the time of the declaration of intentions and of $4 when the petition for complete naturalization is filed.

Courage and Cowardice.
The thin line between courage and cowardice is none too distinctly drawn, for it rides astride fear. And it must seem inane to be told how one can be either a coward or a courageous man, depending altogether upon which side of the line one takes the first step, but the formula has held good in actual practice in our very best war. —From "Am I a Coward?" by Eugene L. Harrison, in Physical Culture.

Optimistic Thought.
Security regards the future as well as the present.

Pleasure in Making Others Happy.
If those of us who are spending ourselves in the pursuit of empty pleasures stop for a moment and, resolving to look up our ill or less fortunate friends, would go to see them once in a while, or would send some brief message of cheer, we would experience a joy delightfully new and satisfying to ourselves. We would find it far more worth while to bring a smile to lips that have been set with pain or sorrow than to seek pleasures that may amuse us idly for a moment and then, because we are satiated with "good times," interest us no longer.—Exchange.

Maelstrom of Norway.

The maelstrom of Norway is a dangerous whirlpool off the coast of Norway, caused by a rushing of the currents of the ocean in a channel between two of the Loffoden islands, and intensified at times by contrary winds, to the destruction (according to the stories) often of small craft caught in the eddies of it, and sometimes of whales attempting to pass through it.

Nothing Good Made in a Hurry.

Cables Improve With Age.

It is found that the insulation resistance of telephone cables increases with the age of the cable, when it lies in the ground, because the moisture it possesses appears to be dried out.

Record for Divers.

In salvaging the United States submarine F-4, which was sunk off Honolulu in March, 1915, divers went down to a depth of about 300 feet and adjusted chains and cables and directed operations of men at the surface. This is said to have broken all diving records.

AMERICANS ASKED TO LIMIT USE OF SUGAR

Must Use No More Than Two Pounds Per Person a Month if the Present Meagre Allied Sugar Ration Is Maintained.

Stocks Will Be Short Until Beginning of New Year—Ration May Be Enlarged Then.

Two pounds of sugar a month—half a pound a week—that is the sugar ration the U. S. Food Administration has asked every American to observe until January 1, 1919, in order to make sure there shall be enough for our Army and Navy, for the Allied armies and for the civilians of those nations.

By New Year's the world sugar situation will be relieved somewhat by the new crop. Cuban sugar of this year's crop will be arriving in this country.

Every available sugar source will be drawn on by the Food Administration during the next winter months to maintain sufficient stocks here to keep up our national sugar supply. During October the first American beet sugar will arrive in the markets. By the middle of November some of our Louisiana cane crop will be available. All of this sugar and more may be needed to keep this nation supplied on a reduced ration and to safeguard the Allied sugar ration from still further reduction. In Europe the present ration is already reduced to a minimum.

Our Situation.

The situation which the United States faces in its efforts to maintain a fair distribution of sugar to the Allied world is as follows:

Sugar supplies throughout the country, in homes, stores, factories and bakeries are at a low ebb. We must make increased sugar shipments to the Allies.

Production of American beet and Louisiana cane crops have been disappointing.

Porto Rico crops have been curtailed.

Immense sugar stocks in Java cannot be reached on account of the shipping shortage; ships are needed for troop movements and munitions.

Army and Navy sugar requirements have increased as well as those from the Allies.

Most industries using sugar have had their allotment reduced by one-half; some will receive no sugar.

Households should make every effort to preserve the fruit crop without sugar, or with small amounts of sugar. Later, when the sugar supply is larger, the canned fruit may be sweetened as it is used.
